

it's time to get Practical

The legal industry is rapidly transforming. You — our clients — expect more from your lawyers. More efficiency. More predictability. More value.

That's why we've rolled up our sleeves to launch Gowlings Practical, a program that brings a simple yet effective project management approach to the way we provide legal services.

To lead this initiative, we're proud to announce that Rick Kathuria, a noted expert in legal project management, has joined Gowlings as our National Director, Project Management and Legal Logistics.

Rick's leadership and expertise will help ensure that Gowlings Practical delivers on our promise to you of a superior client experience.
